

53rd Street Music

Kathy Skelton – Bio

Kathy has been involved in music all her life. She grew up singing in church and school choirs and performing in school musical theater productions. She attended Mars Hill College in Mars Hill, North Carolina where she studied Music Education, focusing on voice and piano. Kathy taught piano and voice lessons in Florida for 3 years before moving to Canada in 2000. This is her 16th year teaching piano and voice lessons at 53rd Street Music. Kathy enjoys sharing her love of music with students of all ages and abilities.

In her spare time, Kathy can be found playing softball, camping with her husband and 2 children and cheering on the Red Deer Rebels. She also enjoys watching her son's hockey and baseball games and her daughter's fastpitch games and dance shows

“Life is one grand, sweet song, so start the music.” –Ronald Reagan.